

A coupon for your thoughts

Anyone facing infertility issues needs some distraction every now and then... The 'A pin for your thoughts' foundation offers support to everyone suffering from infertility or subfertility as well as their friends and family. We have created these special coupons for you, if you know someone suffering from infertility of subfertility. By handing out these coupons to someone struggling with infertility issues, you can offer some well-deserved (and needed) support and distraction. And because we know you might have some extra fun activities up your sleeve, we have left 3 coupons blank. This way you can make it even more personal.

So.... go ahead and print them out!

Print and cut them out before giving the coupon to someone dear to you.
